Star Carrier: We break a Rule on Letters

In publishing the following letter we are breaking the oldest rule on this newspaper: Never print an unsigned communication. But it's the exception that proves the rule—and when you read the following you will understand what makes it the exception.

Editor The Star: I just want to say how much I enjoy the changes in The Star. And to tell you of an incident that happened not too long ago.

My grandson is a paper boy for The Star. Back earlier when we were having some cold rains he left one day without a raincoat (he walks his route and has quite a lengthy one). Well, naturally he got soaking wet. He left one of his customers a paper and stopped on the porch until the rain let up. She rudely told him to get off her porch.

He went on to the next customer and she invited him in to get warm and gave him a glass of warm milk and a raincoat.

Just goes to show you that there still are some good people left in this world. I don't know this lady, but I want to say "Thank you" for being so nice to my grandson.

Come on, folks, these paper boys trudge through the heat and cold to bring you your paper; so please be nice to them—not only my grandson but all of them. Thanks

City

That's a fine letter for the institution known as The Press. If grandma will disclose her identity I think The Star will reward her with a check. But her identity will still be a secret faithfully kept by our organization.

While we are on the subject I should explain just how our carrier boy system operates.

Back in 1929 when we bought and consolidated the morning Press and evening Star of Hope, as Hope Star, we found eight boys to be the carrier staff, delivering only, for $1.67 per boy per week, the office doing what collection work there was. We added more boys, beefed up the office collection system, and the circulation position improved rapidly in 1930 and 1931.

But in 1932 we switched to the Little Merchant plan, in which the boys handle both collection and delivery, buying at wholesale from the newspaper company and selling at retail. It's the universal system for American newspapers today. Today's Star carrier averages around $10 a week, compared to $1.67 in 1929.

I know of nothing that better trains a boy for the adult world into which he'll move in a few years. He learns how to make change, how to meet people and make friends—in short, he learns the art of salesmanship . . . and a good salesman is never out of a job.

Back in the 1930s I dreamed up a Page One feature, "Men of Tomorrow"—each article showing a carrier's picture and telling in his own language his experience on a newspaper delivery route.

We are planning to get up a roster of all the boys who have handled Hope Star routes since the present ownership took over in 1929—43 years ago. The number will probably run close to 1,000—many of them being in business here today. That roster should make interesting reading.

Quang Tri occupied by troops

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese paratroopers and tanks forged into the heart of Quang Tri City today and seized control of two-thirds of the provincial capital that the North Vietnamese captured May 1.

A huge American air and naval armada covered the advancing South Vietnamese.

South Vietnamese marines were closing in on the city from the east. One task force was reported to have advanced half a mile to the eastern outskirts and was a little more than a mile east of the Citadel, at the center of the city.

A second marine task force made a helicopter landing 2½ miles southeast of the city.

Lt. Col. Do Viet, a spokesman for the Saigon command, said that elements of a South Vietnamese paratroop battalion backed by tanks had pushed into the northern part of Quang Tri a few hours before dawn.

"They are right next to the Citadel," he said.

Viet reported that resistance appeared to be light; although the forwardmost troops of the battalion were shelled by 107mm rockets and long-range 130mm guns.

"We control at least two-thirds of the city," Viet told newsmen.

Heavier fighting was reported on the southern and eastern fringes of the city. Viet reported 58 North Vietnamese killed and eight tanks destroyed on the outskirts.

Paratroopers on the southern side battled heavy counter-attacks Thursday night from North Vietnamese forces making a stand in a line of old French villas.

Scores of U.S. Navy jets from 7th Fleet carriers off the coast scrambled into the night skies to attack the North Vietnamese, their tanks, artillery and automatic weapons.

It was the first stiff resistance the South Vietnamese paratroopers have encountered since they began tightening their grip on the southern edges of the city three days ago.

Associated Press correspondent Holger Jensen reported that South Vietnamese tanks knocked out two Soviet-built PT76 light amphibious tanks used by the North Vietnamese and a paratrooper knocked out a third with a hand-fired anti-tank missile.

The other tanks fled into heavy thickets.

Associated Press correspondent Dennis Neeld reported that South Vietnamese paratroopers captured three prisoners, one of them seriously wounded.

Most photogenic

Seventeen-year-old Anita McCauley of Hope won three trophies in last weekend's Miss Arkansas Teenager Pageant in Pine Bluff. Miss McCauley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt McCauley of Hope, won three trophies in the competition.

Two other Hope girls—Teri Castle, 15, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hatfield, and Jakella Young, 14, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young—were also in the finals. (See article below.)

Hope girl wins 3 trophies

A Hope girl—17-year-old Anita McCauley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt McCauley—captured three coveted trophies last weekend in the annual Miss Arkansas Teenager Pageant in Pine Bluff. Miss McCauley, who will be a senior at Hope High School next fall, won trophies for being one of the 27 finalists in the pageant, for being "most photogenic" and for the "best essay."

The finalists also included two other girls from Hope—Teri Castle, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hatfield, and Jakella Young, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young.

Miss McCauley's essay on "What's Right With America?" is reprinted below in its entireity:

"What's right with America? A lot of things are right with this country, but first of importance in my mind is its people—the truly American people—the "behind-the-scene" people who do great work for America and never ask to be recognized. Those people who act as the blood in our body—they do their work best when they're unseen. Take for instance, the person who drew up plans for our litter campaigns. Can anyone here tell me his name? This is the kind of people I'm speaking of—the people who love this country enough to sacrifice for it—Yet never ask to be praised for it. This is the true American—and they're what's right with America."

Unemployment drops

Another jump in U.S. food prices

WASHINGTON (AP) — A renewed surge in livestock and meat prices led an over-all rise of five-tenths of one per cent in wholesale prices of food and industrial products in June, the government said today. The unemployment rate dropped during the month.

It was the second straight substantial monthly price increase, following a three-fifths of one per cent hike in May for the largest two-month increase since last January and February.

The Labor Department also reported that the nation's unemployment rate dropped from 5.9 to 5.5 per cent of the work force last month for the lowest figure in more than a year and a half. The improvement was entirely due to seasonal factors.

But the actual total of jobless Americans climbed 1.1 million to 5.4 million in the annual summer flood of school youngsters seeking work.

Because the rise in the work force was not as large as expected, the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics figured it as a decline in the jobless rate on a seasonal basis.

Livestock prices climbed 4.7 per cent, poultry rose 6.9 per cent and processed meats, poultry and fish rose 3.6 per cent, the report on wholesale prices said.

Industrial raw materials rose three-tenths of one per cent and consumer-finished goods—those ready for retail markets—increased five-tenths of one per cent.

The increases pushed the government's Wholesale Price Index up to 118.8 of its 1967 base, meaning that it cost wholesalers $118.80 in June for every $100 worth of goods five years ago. The index was 3.9 per cent above a year ago.

The report said wholesale prices had climbed at an annual rate of 5.3 per cent in the seven months so far of President Nixon's Phase 2 wage-price controls, a larger increase than the 5.2 per cent rate of increase in the eight months prior to the Phase 1 wage-price freeze imposed by Nixon last August.

The report listed increases for gasoline, electric power and some other fuels; wood products; motor vehicle parts; machinery; textiles, clothing and shoes; paper products; rubber and plastics; drugs and paint.

There were price declines for natural gas; major household appliances; television sets; chemicals, and glass.

The price of fruits and vegetables increased nine-tenths of one per cent; eggs were up 1.4 per cent and sugar rose four-tenths.

There were declines of seven-tenths of one per cent for milk; 1.8 per cent for over-all dairy products and seven-tenths of one per cent for vegetable oils.

The report on unemployment said the jobless rate for men declined from 4.3 to 4 per cent with a total of 1.9 million. The rate for women dropped from 5.9 to 5.5 per cent with a total of 1.6 million and the rate for teen-agers declined from 15.7 to 14.5 per cent with a total of 1.9 million.

It said the total number of employed Americans declined about 170,000 to 78.7 million, but seasonal factors changed this to a rise of more than 2 million because the total usually drops much more in June.

Rash of burglaries ends in 3 arrests

City and county law enforcement officers apparently solved a rash of recent burglaries—one of which had not even been reported.

Within the past four days, about 10 local businesses had been burglarized, and more than $200 reported stolen. Last night, a majority of the stolen money was recovered, and three teenage suspects were arrested and charged with the crimes.

One suspect, according to law officers, was apprehended near the Brookwood School, hiding money in an old pump house. Two other suspects were arrested later at their homes in the vicinity. Two of the youths were 15, and one was 13.

According to the officers, the youths admitted breaking into 10 local businesses—Hope Pawn Shop, York Furniture, City Lumber Company, OK Barber Shop, City Recreation Hall, Cox Drug, City Cleaners, the office of Dr. Phil Manus, McClain's Cleaners, and the Hempstead County Library. Officers said one of the burglaries had not been reported.

The three youths were charged with breaking and entering and will be turned over to juvenile authorities today.

Participating in the investigation and arrests were city policemen Reid Clark, Bill Haltom, Ronnie Stovall, and Richard Rowe, and Hempstead County Sheriff Henry Sinyard.

Youth drowns in stock pond near Blevins

A six-year-old boy was drowned yesterday afternoon in a stock pond near Blevins, according to authorities.

Fielding Genetry Rateliff Jr. was reportedly wading in a small pond with several of his brothers and sisters when the youth went in the water over his head. The body was recovered by a neighbor.

He is survived by his parents and several brothers and sisters. Funeral services are incomplete and will be announced by Herndon Funeral Home of Hope.

Ho hum. Another skyjacking

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A hijacker who ordered a Pacific Southwest Airlines jetliner 1,000 miles up and down California, collecting $450,000 ransom and a parachute en route, surrendered to a one of his hostages — a highway patrolman — early today at Oakland International Airport.

FBI agent-in-charge Robert Gebhardt identified the air pirate as Francis Goodell, 21, of Manassas, Va., AWOL two days from the Army. He said military cards were found on Goodell, including one from Ft. Riley, Kan. The entire $450,000 was recovered, Gebhardt said.

It was the second hijacking for PSA, an intrastate airline, in two days. On Wednesday FBI agents stormed aboard a PSA jetliner at San Francisco International Airport, killing two hijackers who had demanded $800,000 in ransom and escape to Siberia. A passenger was shot in killed by one of the hijackers, the FBI said, and two other passengers were wounded.

The Oakland air pirate gave up his guns to California Highway Patrol Capt. Lloyd T. Turner, who he held as a hostage on the flight.

"He (the hijacker) started to act rather nervous and pursuant to suggestions, with the captain and the pilot talking to him together and individually — after 2½ hours — he finally surrendered his weapons and surrendered to the FBI," Gebhardt said.

Turner, a passenger on the flight, had volunteered to stay aboard the three-engined jetliner as a hostage with three crewmen after the jet's 53 other passengers and crew were allowed off in San Diego. Earlier reports that there were two passengers being held as hostage were erroneous, the FBI said.

U.S. Atty. James Browning Jr. authorized a complaint for air piracy against Goodell and recommended $100,000 bail.

The Boeing 727-100, originally with with 58 persons aboard including the hijacker, was seized while on a short flight Thursday from Oakland to Sacramento.

Interviews in election case set

Subpoening of witnesses in the investigation into alleged irregularities connected with the opening of a ballot box following the May 30 Democratic preferential primary will begin today or tomorrow, according to Prosecuting Attorney Dub Arnold of Arkadelphia.

Arnold told the Star early this afternoon that court reporter Carl Arrington of Hope, Tuesday, will record testimony of persons supposedly having information about the opening of the absentee box in the courthouse the night of the election.

Arnold further stated that prospective witnesses would be question in the courtroom throughout the day Tuesday in an "effort to get to the bottom" of the alleged incident.

Arnold declined to comment on whether he planned to file charges in the case himself or petition Circuit Judge John Goodson of Texarkana to call a grand jury investigation in an interview yesterday, he mentioned both possibilities.

He said Tuesday's interview with witnesses "will decide which route I go."

Sen. Kennedy has the 'hammer' on VP nomination

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy will still have "first refusal" on the vice presidential nomination if Sen. George McGovern captures the Democratic presidential nod, sources close to the South Dakota senator said today.

Despite Kennedy's repeated statements he won't be available, the offer will probably be made because polls show he would strengthen a McGovern-led ticket, the sources said.

The sources discounted the value of polls ordered by McGovern on other possible running mates, declaring it is impossible to measure the value of possible candidates who are not so well known, such as Govs. Reubin Askew of Florida and Dale Bumpers of Arkansas. Both have been mentioned by McGovern as leading possibilities.

Activity in this steaming Democratic National Convention city, which has been limited this week to advance logistical preparations by the candidates and a half-dozen protest groups, picks up today as the parley heads for an opening Monday.

Most of the major presidential candidates — except McGovern — fly here to start wooing arriving delegates in their bid to overtake the front-running South Dakota senator.

Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey, Edmund S. Muskie and Henry M. Jackson; Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace; and Rep. Wilbur D. Mills all scheduled afternoon arrivals. McGovern is due Saturday afternoon.

With the convention to start Monday night, two major credentials cases which involve 151 McGovern delegates from California and 59 Illinois delegates led by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley remained in a legal limbo.

Chief Justice Warren E. Burger extended indefinitely Thursday a delaying order in the case so he could consult with his eight Supreme Court colleagues on whether to call a special session to consider appeals in the two cases.

The two cases are crucial, especially the California one, in McGovern's quest for victory on the first ballot. Including the 151 California votes, The Associated Press count shows McGovern with 1,454.65 first ballot votes — just 54.35 short of the 1,509 needed for the nomination.

Failure to retain the 151 votes, either through court rulings or convention action, would leave McGovern more than 200 votes away from the nomination, a far more difficult hurdle to overcome.

The AP count shows Humphrey a distant second with 398.55; Wallace with 367; Muskie with 219.55; and 425.65 uncommitted. The rest are scattered.

Laird issued an analysis of McGovern's proposal for a $32 billion reduction by 1975 and called it "tantamount to a white flag of surrender." McGovern rejected that characterization and said, "My proposed military budget will make certain that the United States is the strongest nation in the world."

In Miami Beach, meanwhile, heads of three largely black organizations threatened to crash the convention sessions unless 750 delegate seats are provided for poor people.

The threats were made by the Rev. Ralph Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference; George A. Wiley, executive director of the National Welfare Rights Organization; and Jesse Gray, director of the National Tenants Organization.

Richard J. Murphy, the convention manager, said after meeting with the three Thursday he was unable to comply with their request "because the rules don't permit it."

In other developments:

—A Terry Sanford for President Citizens Committee to boost the candidacy of the former North Carolina governor was formed by a group headed by Atty. Gen. Andrew Miller of Virginia.

Wallace out of hospital

SILVER SPRING, Md. (AP) — George C. Wallace ended 54 days of hospitalization today with thanks to those who "saved my life" and sped toward resumption of his governorship in Alabama and his quest for the presidency in Miami Beach.

"I feel good, I feel great," Wallace declared.

The disabled governor was pushed in his wheelchair to a limousine amidst the applause of several score spectators for a motorcade to nearby Andrews Air Force Base and the flight south in an Air Force hospital plane.

But Wallace, wounded May 15 at a political rally in Laurel, Md., first paused briefly to thank government and hospital officials and staff members for the care they accorded him.

In an accompanying written statement at Holy Cross Hospital Wallace said "Sister Helen Marie, the doctors, sisters and staff of the hospital will always hold a very dear place in my heart. They saved my life, and I wish God's blessings to all of them."

As he shook hands with hospital staffers and other well-wishers, and saluted toward news photographers, it almost seemed as if he were already back on the campaign trail for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Muskie-McGovern deal reportedly fell through

BALTIMORE (AP) — Sen. Edmund S. Muskie tentatively agreed four weeks ago to endorse Sen. George McGovern for the Democratic presidential nomination under a short-lived agreement worked out by aides, the Baltimore Sun reported today.

McGovern forces had offered to assume an unspecified amount of the $200,000 campaign debt which then was facing Muskie if the Maine senator would endorse McGovern, the newspaper said.

Berl I. Bernhard, Muskie's staff director at the time, first raised the question of campaign debts and June 8 worked out the tentative agreement with Frank Mankiewicz, McGovern's national political director, according to the Sun.

The reported deal fell through the next day, however, when Muskie told a National Press Club audience that he was staying in the race, the article said.

The article, which quoted only "a source who knows of the discussions from the McGovern side," said the South Dakotan's forces were so certain of receiving the endorsement that they arranged a flight for Muskie to join McGovern in an appearance at the Oklahoma Democratic Convention.

Both Mankiewicz and Bernhard declined to comment on the reported deal, the Sun said.

200 county farmers due to get farm set-aside program funds

Approximately 200 farmers in Hempstead County are scheduled to receive farm set-aside program payments this week, according to Jack S. Stuart, county executive director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS).

Nationwide, approximately 750,000 cotton, feed grain and wheat producers were mailed a total of $850 million in expedited preliminary payments in time for the checks to arrive in producers' hands on July 1.

Payments under the set-aside programs are made to farmers who agree to set aside part of their land from production in order to meet a national objective of balancing supply and demand in certain commodities.

These payments held to offset the loss of returns from cropland that otherwise would be used for income-yielding production, and on which the farmer is obliged to continue to pay taxes and apply needed conservation steps, according to officials of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Payments to producers are limited to $55,000 per person for each of the crops—feed grain, wheat, and cotton—under the Agricultural Act of 1970.

Feed grain producers in the nation ultimately will receive about $1.9 billion, cotton producers about $825 million and wheat producers about $1 billion. Preliminary payment to wheat producers are limited by law to 75 per cent of final payments. Final wheat certificate payments will be made after December 1. Feed grain and cotton farmers may or may not get a final payment, depending on market conditions. The expedited farm program payments are made possible by streamlined procedures inaugurated in 1970 by ASCS. The action enabled farmers to receive the entire payment due them in the 1970 and 1971 programs six to eight weeks earlier than ever before.

These early payments help many producers reduce their need for long term credit and cut the amount of interest paid. The flow of cash at this time will again be of major significance to rural communities.

McGovern is running a campaign of volunteers

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — When the wife of Owen Donley, Sen. George McGovern's convention coordinator, came to work one morning this week, she found her 10-year-old daughter Shana running the switchboard.

It was another indication that the front-running South Dakota senator, who has the most expensive logistical operation in this Democratic National Convention city, still depends heavily on volunteers — young ones, especially.

McGovern even has a Youth Center for his volunteers, a rented ballroom in a south Miami Beach hotel where the young nondelegates can get together and meet with delegates.

Donley, a 48-year-old lawyer from South Dakota who was McGovern's administrative assistant for eight years, began planning the senator's Miami Beach setup five months ago — at a time when McGovern's presidential prospects didn't look too good.

As his chances have improved, their planning has escalated. Their first request to Democratic officials was for 60 hotel rooms; it went up to 160 even before the New Hampshire primary and has been growing steadily.

By the end of this week, McGovern staff workers and volunteers will be scattered through 550 hotel rooms in nine different Miami Beach hotels. Only Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine has more.

By contrast, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, one of McGovern's chief rivals, has cut back his room requests from 450 to 274.

"The plans changed as the political situation did," said Wayne Faris, a 30-year-old St. Paul attorney, who is running the Humphrey operation.

All of the candidates — from McGovern to Rep. Shirley Chisholm — have offices in the hotels they drew by lot last February and in trailers outside Convention Hall. But the extent and costs of the logistical operations vary considerably.

McGovern has his own telephone system — so do Humphrey and Muskie — and the biggest transportation fleet of any of the candidates: 50 cars, five station wagons, four large boats, four small boats, four buses and two limousines.

In contrast, Faris said Humphrey has about 15 cars and two yachts. He is renting other vehicles as needed. Asked the cost of the Minnesota senator's operation, Fairs replied, "I'm spending everything they give me. We're doing it sort of piecemeal."

Muskie — who dropped his active primary campaigning in late April because of a lack of funds, among other reasons — had put money aside for the Miami Beach operation.

Muskie originally asked for 500 rooms, now expects to fill 800 with staff, volunteers and supporters, a staff worker said.

1972 Whig party names Fillmore for president

By DAVID GOELLER

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Whigs have nominated Millard Fillmore as their 1972 presidential candidate. The No. 2 spot on the ticket was won by Robert E. Lee Moxley, who happened to be passing by.

"The Constitution doesn't say the candidate has to be alive," Jeffrey Amdur said after 15 delegates acclaimed Fillmore the standardbearer of the Resurrected Whig Party at an outdoor convention in a park Thursday night.

The Resurrected Whigs are an offshoot of the Students' Committee for the Glorification of Millard Fillmore, a Whig who served in the White House from 1850 to 1853 after the death of President Zachary Taylor.

Amdur, cochairman of the committee, says the selection of Fillmore was a long-overdue restoration to party favor for the man who was dumped by the Whigs in 1852.

Party leaders say they know little about Moxley, 70, the Baltimore man chosen for the No. 2 spot.

"He happened to be passing by and we asked him if he wanted to be vice president," said Amdur.

Moxley won out on the first ballot over P.T. Barnum, Chester A. Arthur, W.C. Fields and others.

What does the Resurrected Whig Party stand for?

"Motherhood, the flag, apple pie and Millard Fillmore," said James A. Seidel, a Frostburg (Md.) State College student who organized the convention.

Discussing the party's platform, Seidel said one of the planks calls for an immediate freeze on wages and prices, followed by federal action to roll them back to 1853 levels.

Another urges the cutting off of federal aid to school districts where pupils are transported against their will.

"This is based on the Whig philosophy that stage-coaching is inherently wrong," said Amdur, who teaches junior high school French in Ferndale, Md.

Is the Whig party ahead or behind the times?

"Yes, we are," was Amdur's equivocal reply.

Fire hits warehouse at Camden

CAMDEN, Ark. AP — An early-morning fire raced through a three-story warehouse at the Bag-Pak Division of International Paper Co. here today.

The huge warehouse was used to store rolls of paper used by the company, which manufactures paper bags at its Camden plant. The adjacent plant, which employs about 625 persons, was not damaged.

A spokesman said the plant which produces paper bags would be closed for a few days and that it was hoped the plant would be back in production on a limited basis by early next week. He said operations at the plant would be unable to resume until additional paper is received from another International Paper plant in Camden and one in Mobile, Ala.

Firemen from Fordyce and El Dorado said they could see the flames from 15 miles away as they drove to the fire.

Word said the cause of the blaze had not been determined but an investigation was under way. He said that for the time being arson was being discounted.

An International Paper Co. spokesman said there had been no monetary estimate of damage.

No one was injured in the fire.

CIA is trying hand at rainmaking

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency has tried rainmaking over the Ho Chi Minh trail of Southern Laos but with only indifferent results, military sources report.

The CIA declined comment on the reports, which indicated the experiments were conducted in past dry seasons along with other U.S. efforts to hinder supply truck movements from North Vietnam to communist troops in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

The sources hinted the CIA's operations, which presumably involved seeding clouds with silver-iodide crystals or other compounds, were carried out by the CIA's own aircraft and by Air Force planes assigned to work with the agency.

At his news conference Thursday, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said his department "is not and has not been engaged in any weather-modification programs or activities over North Vietnam."

Laird omitted any mention of Laos, Cambodia or South Vietnam. When asked about this, he told reporters: "I'm not going to discuss further operations ... along that line."

From time to time, some members of Congress and of the scientific community have expressed uneasiness over reported ventures by the United States into weather warfare.

U.S. military scientists were researching in this field at least 10 years ago.

In early 1962, Vice Adm. William F. Raborn wrote in the U.S. Naval Institute proceedings that "we already have taken our first steps toward developing an environmental-warfare capability."

Raborn, at that time the Navy's development chief, later became a high CIA official.

"Large-scale weather-control techniques might be used to cause extreme flooding in strategic areas or even to bring a new ice age upon the enemy," Raborn wrote.

Laird has discussed in public military rainmaking programs such as were used to help alleviate drought in Texas and the Philippines.

"Sometimes they are successful, sometimes they are not," the Defense secretary said Thursday.

One official told a reporter: "It did rain in the Philippines but you couldn't prove it was anything but an act of God."

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Dear Helen:

Not all seniors resent remarks about their age, as did a recent writer to HHU. In the first place, one must have a sense of humor. Second, he should be thankful for reaching retirement years. I think it is a privilege to grow old.

I feel fortunate to have reached age 75 and, while I can pass for 60, I never hedge about my years.

Ten years ago I retired, but couldn't stand it, so went back to work. I arise at 5 a.m. put in 35 hours a week, and never felt better. In my spare time, I'm writing a book which has been tentatively accepted for publication.

I have a little trouble going up and down stairs and I don't expect to skip rope or jump hurdles, but I have the self-confidence I lacked in my youth. I now know I have special talents, I can pay my way and more, I give help when it's needed, and I get along great with younger people (who don't put me down).

I am thankful for Medicare, Social Security, and for not being young any more. Maturity is such a comfort. Everyone should live to grow old—say around 95—B.R.

Dear B.:

And may your next 20 years be the best yet!—H.

Dear Helen:

One of my pet peeves is the person who will go in on a group gift to someone and then conveniently forget to pay her share. She gets her named signed on the card, gets the "thank you," etc., but the rest of us are stuck.

Many times the one who volunteers to buy the gift ends up paying for half of it because she's usually the good-natured patsy who doesn't have the nerve or is too embarrassed to dun the culprits.

I used to think it was my good taste that made me the chosen one (the buyer), but I've decided nobody else wants to get left—Holding The Bag

Dear HTB:

Get tough. Remind those forgetful "contributors" until they cough up. If more people were businesslike in personal dealings, there would be a lot fewer moochers in the world.—H.

MRS. FREDDIE LILE EASTERLING

Miss Ables marries Freddie Easterling

The candlelight ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Julia Louise Ables and Freddie Lile Easterling was solemnized Friday, June 30, at 7 p.m. in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church of Texarkana, Texas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Ables, Texarkana, Texas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lile Easterling.

The Rev. Ed J. Devers officiated at the ceremony. Tommy and Bobby Ables, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles and served as acolytes for the nuptial mass. Bernard Q. Fouke of Fayetteville, uncle of the bride, was commentator. Mrs. Martin Patterson of Texarkana, organist, played traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Larry Patterson of Texarkana as she sang "Prayer Perfect" and "Ave Maria."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of highrise princess line with a plastron effect in back and a bouffant silhouette of eyelet embroidery. The dress was fashioned with a Sabrina neckline and Bishop sleeves. Her headpiece of Venise lace petals encircling her face and studded with pearls secured English silk illusion that tiered into a fingertip veil. The bride wore an heirloom diamond sunburst pin that had been worn by all brides in her mother's family. She wore "something old, new, borrowed, and blue and a sixpence in her shoe."

Miss Phyllis Anne Ables of Texarkana was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Jerry Brown of Hope, sister of the groom, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Rankin of Texarkana, Miss Diane Frazer of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Kay Moore of Houston, Tex. Little Miss Valerie Steed of Texarkana was flower girl, and Brian Brown of Hope, nephew of the groom, was the ringbearer.

Lile Easterling, father of the groom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Jerry Brown and Jerry Monroe, both of Hope, Dennis Payne of Little Rock, and Clay Collins of Ashdown. Ushers were Billy Bob Pounds of Ashdown and Tommy and Bobby Ables, both of Texarkana.

The Sacred Heart Parish Center was the setting for the reception which followed the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests at the Easterling-Ables wedding were: the Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Renshaw, Mr. and Mrs. Autrey Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Yocom, Mrs. Ruby Brown, Miss Sue Duckett, Wendell McCorkle, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Payne and Steve, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Easterling and Jackie, Mrs. Winston Erwin, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Purtle, Mr. and Mrs. James Ellis, Jerry Monroe, Miss Judy Foley, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown, Scott, Allen, and Brian, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cooper, Lesha and Charlotte, all of Hope; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Tarpley, Huntsville, Tex.; Mrs. Melvin Neel, Groves, Tex.; Mrs. Mabel Wade, Stephens; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Erwin, Sandy and Bobby Jean, Fords, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Cloy Collins and Billy Bob Pounds, Ashdown; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Payne, Little Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Tarpley and Randy, Marshall, Tex.

MR. AND MRS. L. D. ARNOLD

Local couple celebrates 69th wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. (Dow) Arnold celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary on June 18, 1972. They were married on June 18, 1903 in Nevada County, Arkansas.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold have a family of seven living children, They are: Mrs. Eunice Rogers of Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Jewell Remedis of Texarkana, Tex.; Mrs. Willa Stanley, deceased; L. D. Arnold Jr. of Rt. 1, Patmos; Mrs. Alma Stultz of Klamoth Falls, Oregon; Harlan Arnold of Aliquippa, Pennsylvania; Mrs. A. H. Boswell Jr. of Bodcaw; and Doyle Arnold of Atlanta, Texas.

They are grandparents of 23 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren.

Those attending a recent gathering in their honor included Mrs. Eunice Rogers, Dallas, Tex.; Mrs. Jewell Remedis, Texarkana, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Arnold Jr., Patmos; Mrs. Alma Stultz and Harold, Klamoth Falls, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Arnold, Atlanta, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Boswell Jr., Bodcaw; Mrs. Charles LaCava and Richard, ElCajon, Calif.; Mrs. Bob Knowles, Tony and Roger, Witchita, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Fran Goblet and children, Beaver, Penn.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Arnold and children, Wake Village, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stanley and daughter, Hope; Art Stanley, Hope; and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burns and son, Dallas, Tex.

Miss Dixon honored at tea

Miss Dean Dixon of Lewisville, bride-elect of Larry Moore, was honored with an afternoon tea on Saturday, July 1, in the home of Mrs. Leonard Ellis with Mrs. Hubert Barksdale of Little Rock, co-hostess.

Mrs. Ellis greeted the guests at the door and introduced them to the receiving line, where they met Mrs. Donald Moore, mother of the future groom, Mrs. Jack Dixon of Lewisville, mother of the honoree, and the bride-elect, who pinned a daisy corsage to her trousseau frock.

Mrs. Van Moore of Little Rock and Mrs. Helen Hatch invited the guests into the dining room, where the table was covered with a robin's egg blue cloth fringed in white. Silver containers held three arrangements of roses and tinted daisies and Queen Anne's lace in pink and blue. Tasty snacks and confections were enjoyed, and Mrs. Frank McLarty and Mrs. Charles Yarbrough of Prescott, aunt of the groom-elect, served frosted punch from a silver bowl.

Assisting in the dining room courtesies were Mrs. Thomas Crosnoe of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Jo Carolyn Bruce, Mrs. A. D. Brannan, Mrs. Hal Coones, Mrs. Mack McLarty, and Miss Jane Salee of Arkadelphia.

About 150 called during the appointed time.

Laver leads tourney

BRETTON WOODS, N.H. (AP) — Though he advanced to the quarter-finals of the $25,000 Mt. Washington Invitational Tennis Tournament, top-seeded Rod Laver from Australia is disappointed in his play.

Laver rallied from 1-3 in the third set Thursday to defeat 22-year-old Haroon Rahim of Pakistan, 6-3, 6-7, 7-5. Rahim saved three match points before double faulting.

Little League play-offs set

Monday Night, July 10, the Hope Auto Little League tame (winner of the first half) will meet the Sheriff team (winner of the second half) in a Play-off game to determine the League Champion Following this game, which will begin at 7 pm, the League will recognize all the Sponsors of the Little League teams for the 1972 seasons. Also, certificates will be presented to all the Little League players who will be completing their Little League eligibility. The final event will be the announcement of the All-Star Team selections.

Travelers blank Cubs

MIDLAND, TEX. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers unleashed a 19-hit attack and buried the Midland Cubs 12-3 in a Texas League game here Thursday night.

Bill Bright collected four hits, including his 15th home run, and drove in three runs. Jorge Roque also connected for a homer.

Al Hrabosky went the route for the Travelers to gain his fifth victory of the season against four defeats. He was never in serious trouble as he fanned eight.

KANSAS CITY ROYALS

American League West

Mike Hedlund

PROSPECTUS: Expectations are great for the Royals. They have progressed quicker than any other team in baseball. An expansion team just three years ago, they finished second in A.L. West in 1971. Their organization is one of the most enterprising in sports. Multi-millionaire owner Ewing Kauffman has hired the best executives (whose trades have provided six of eight starters), started a baseball academy in Florida to unearth talent and the results have been exceptional. The Royals have speed (shortstop Fred Patek and centerfielder Amos Otis, for example, stole 102 bases between them in 1971), glove strength, pitching (Dick Drago was 17-11, Mike Hedlund 15-8), but are somewhat short on hitting and quite short on power. They were last in the league in home runs. John Mayberry, 21-year-old power hitter acquired from Houston, may change that.

PITCHING—Along with Drago and Hedlund, lefty Paul Splitorff is highly thought of. A rookie last season, he finished with 8-9 record. Bruce Dal Canton and Al Fitzmorris had slightly better than .500 marks in '71. Watch for righty rookie Monty Montgomery, 3-0, in '71 September call up. Ted Abernathy is very reliable reliever.

INFIELD—Mayberry at first is, for all his potential, still an unknown. Cookie Rojas, once an N.L. reject, hit .300, but broke leg late in season. Will he recover? 5-4 shortstop Patek hit .267. At third is Paul Schaal, a .274 hitter.

OUTFIELD—In center, Otis' .301 average was sixth highest in league. Leftfielder Lou Piniella and rightfielder Joe Keough both slumped after good '70 seasons.

Predicted Finish: Third in West.

Spassky gets first move in match of the century

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — Bobby Fischer lost the draw Thursday night, giving Boris Spassky the first move, and the world championship chess match will finally start next Tuesday.

Unless the American challenger or the Soviet champion pleads illness and gets another postponement.

The confusion of the past week was summarized by the old woman selling cigarettes who asked in the beginning: "Fischer come?"

Near the end it was: "Spassky go?"

"I'm very pessimistic," Dr. Max Euwe said at 10 a.m. At noon: "It's a very delicate situation." At 7 p.m., the president of the International Chess Federation sighed: "There's hope."

That was Tuesday. It could have been any day in the garbled prelude to what chess lovers say is the match of the century — Spassky of the U.S.S.R. vs. Fischer of the U.S.A.

Spassky arrived early to wait for Bobby. Saying "I came to play," he philosophically accepted the first postponement when Fischer didn't show.

Later he demanded an apology or he wouldn't play.

At one news conference, one of Fischer's lawyers said he'd come to say he had nothing to say.

Yefim Geller, Spassky's second, fielded questions with: "Kak Gavarit po Angliski," or as you say in English, "No comment."

Then there's the "Eavesdropper," a man approaching middle age with a shock of graying hair combed in careful disarray onto his forehead.

He takes voluminous notes, for a magazine piece, he says. On scraps of paper he records conversations he's overheard. He carries the scraps in a red plastic shopping bag as he moves soundlessly about the hotel lobbies.

One final quote, from Gudmundur Thorarinsson, president of the Icelandic Chess Federation, who was under pressure from Fischer to give up a share of the gate receipts:

"I have worked for more than a year to get this match to Iceland. I would do many things. But I will not bite into a sour apple."

Padres win on bases loaded walk

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve Arlin, San Diego's pitching dentist, must have given the New York Mets a dose of sleeping gas Thursday night. And when the Padres finally got around to operating on Arlin's baseball patients, it was anything but painless.

Arlin pitched 10 brilliant innings, allowing only one hit before turning the Mets over to reliever Gary Ross, who permitted just one more hit in four innings. Finally, the Padres pushed across a run on a bases-loaded walk in the 14th inning for a 1-0 victory.

Arlin, who holds a degree in dentistry from Ohio State University, matched zeroes with the Mets' Jerry Koosman for 10 innings before Ross and New York reliever Tug McGraw took over. By then, the Mets were mesmerized and they never did wake up.

In other National League games Thursday night, San Francisco topped Philadelphia 6-4 in 10 innings, Los Angeles walloped Montreal 11-3, Atlanta edged Chicago 4-3 and Pittsburgh beat Houston 7-3 in 17 innings. Cincinnati and St. Louis were not scheduled.

In the American League, it was New York 6, Oakland 2; Kansas City 7-0 over Detroit; Baltimore 2, Chicago 1; Cleveland sweeping a doubleheader from Texas 4-3 and 6-5 in 12 innings; and Milwaukee edging California 6-5. Minnesota and Boston had the night off.

Despite the outstanding pitching of Arlin and Ross, the Mets were still tied in the 14th because the Padres had been unable to cash in on any earlier scoring opportunities. When they loaded the bases with none out on two singles and a fielder's choice at the start of the 14th, it looked like there was no way they couldn't score. But they almost didn't.

McGraw got Nate Colbert on a force play at the plate and then struck out Clarence Gaston. But Jerry Morales waited out a walk to force home the run San Diego needed.

The Mets almost got it back in the bottom of the 14th when Bud Harrelson walked, moved up on a wild pitch and a sacrifice and then, with two out, tried to score on a short passed ball. But catcher Pat Corrales recovered in time and threw to Ross, covering the plate, to catch Harrelson.

The Giants beat the Phillies in the 10th inning when Tito Fuentes unloaded a two-run triple. The winning rally started with a two-out walk to Dave Kingman and after Domaso Blanco singled, Fuentes delivered his big hit.

San Francisco, which has won six of its last seven games, tied it in the eighth inning when Garry Maddox singled, moved to third on two grounders and scored on Mike Ryan's wild pickoff throw.

Don Money and Deron Johnson homered for the Phillies.

Dusty Baker's two-run homer keyed a four-run Atlanta rally in the third inning and the Braves hung on to nip Chicago.

George Stone, 2-6, earned the victory with ninth inning help from his cousin, Cecil Upshaw. Ron Santo's two-run homer knocked out Stone but Upshaw came on to get the last three outs, recording his seventh save.

It was Stone's first victory as a starter this season.

The Dodgers blasted the Expos, snapping a 3-3 tie with a pair of runs in the eighth inning and then wrapping up the victory with six runs in the ninth.

Bill Russell drove in four runs with two singles and a triple and Jim Lefebvre laced a three-run homer for the Dodgers.

Mike Jorgensen and Clyde Mashore homered for the Expos.

Pittsburgh tied the score on Willie Stargell's two-run homer in the ninth inning and then struggled into the 17th before pushing across four runs to beat Houston.

Reliever Ramon Hernandez started the Pirates' winning rally with a leadoff double and scored the tie-breaking run on a double by Vic Davalillo. Then a wild pitch, a fielder's choice and hits by Al Oliver and Manny Sanguillen produced three more runs to clinch it.

The victory moved the Pirates 2½ games ahead of New York in the NL East while the Astros slipped 1½ games back of idle Cincinnati in the NL West.

Quilici makes debut tonight with Twins

By JAMES WILSON
Associated Press Writer

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — Frank Quilici, who was told in March he would have no chance to manage the Minnesota Twins until he got some minor league experience, makes his debut tonight at the helm of the club on which he has spent his entire major league playing career.

The Twins will try to snap a four game losing streak against the New York Yankees at Metropolitan Stadium.

Twins President Calvin Griffith named the former utility infielder to succeed Bill Rigney, who was fired Thursday after 2½ years on the job and with his club 9½ games behind front-running Oakland in the West Division of the American League.

"Frank made a believer out of me," Griffith told newsmen. "He has shown maturity and I think he is just the man we need to get our team on the right track again."

Quilici, at 33 the youngest major league manager, rejected an offer from Griffith during spring training to manage the Twins' Class in Wisconsin Rapids. He recalled the March conversation: "I told Calvin you can manage for 20 years and not be an experienced manager."

Rigney, the dean of American League managers in his 17th season, had a 90-minute session with Griffith. "I've just been fired," he told newsmen.

"Calvin said we are not selling any tickets and that he wants to go with a local man," Rigney said.

Griffith said the most important reason for the change in managers was because of the reaction of the players on the field. "Too many of them were too nonchalant," he said.

Tigers shut out Royals 7-0

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer

"If you can't win 20 games with this club, you don't deserve to win," said Detroit's Joe Coleman, who then predicted he'll do just that—with a little help from his friends.

Coleman, the Tigers' ace right-hander who won 20 games a year ago, reached the halfway point toward that magic number Thursday night with a six-hit, six-strikeout performance, a 7-0 shutout over Kansas City that halted Detroit's four-game skid.

In other American League games, Baltimore nosed out the Chicago White Sox 2-1, the New York Yankees beat Oakland 6-2, Milwaukee clipped California 6-5 and, in a twi-night doubleheader, Cleveland swept Texas 4-3 and 6-5 in 12 innings. Boston and Minnesota were not scheduled.

In the National League, Los Angeles bombed Montreal 11-3, Atlanta edged the Chicago Cubs 4-3, San Francisco topped Philadelphia 6-4 in 10 innings, San Diego slipped past the New York Mets 1-0 in 14, and Pittsburgh belted Houston 7-3 in a 17-inning affair. Cincinnati and St. Louis were idle.

The Tigers battered five Royals pitchers for 13 hits en route to the triumph that kept them within two games of the front-running Orioles in the East Division.

Aurelio Rodriguez, with two singles and a double, and Tony Taylor, with two singles and a triple, led the assault while Bill Freehan drove in three runs with a single and a double.

The Orioles won three of three from the White Sox in their midweek series, thanks to superlative pitching that held Chicago to a measly 13 hits in the 27 innings. The only runs scored by the Sox in that stretch came on a pair of solo homers by Dick Allen.

Thursday's victory extended Baltimore's winning string to five games—all of them complete games by Orioles' moundsmen. The latest was the five-hitter by Mike Cuellar, who also singled home the deciding run in the eighth inning Thursday night.

Cuellar, who has rebounded from a dismal early season to raise his record to 7-6 with victories in five of his last six decisions, outdueled Tom Bradley, who also had a five-hitter.

"Cuellar was great and so was Bradley," Chicago Manager Chuck Tanner said, stating the obvious. "The pitching on both sides was the best in any series I've seen this year."

Yankees Manager Ralph Houk did a little stating-of-the-obvious himself as he spoke of relief ace Sparky Lyle.

"Maybe I use him too much," Houk said, "but when you have someone like him in the bullpen, you bring him in. He's a good relief pitcher 'cause he has good stuff and gets the ball over the plate."

Lyle did it well enough to pick up his 17th save of the season after the A's had knocked out starter Mike Kekich with four straight hits and two runs in the sixth inning.

Sparky squelched Oakland on just one hit in his 3 1-3 inning stint.

New York, meanwhile, got all the scoring it needed with a four-run fifth inning, two of them coming on Felipe Alou's double, to keep the A's from widening their five-game West Division lead over the White Sox.

Johnny Briggs clubbed his 10th home run of the year in the fifth inning to pull Milwaukee into a 5-5 tie with the Angels, then unloaded his 11th two innings later to catapult the Brewers to victory.

Gaylord Perry chalked up his 13th victory of the season to match Detroit's Mickey Lolich as the winningest pitcher in the majors in the Indians' twinbill opening-game victory. Then Alex Johnson singled and Graig Nettles sent him around the bases with a double for their 12-inning nightcap triumph that made it a sweep over the Rangers.

Little League winners

In Little League play last night at K-Park Barrys won over Greening-Ellis by a score of 12 to 1 in the first game, and the second game was won by Hope Auto beating CBC 10 to 6.

Wayne East was the pitcher for Barrys. Greening-Ellis used Duane Cobb and Billy Brown on the mound. Leading all hitters for the winners was Stan Harris collecting one single and hitting his fifth home run. Also hitting his fifth home run was Wayne East. Mike Beard and Wesley Brown were the leading hitters for the losers getting one hit apiece.

In the second game of the evening Scott Rowland and Rufus Herndon were the pitchers for Hope Auto, and Tra Scott and Vince Bishop saw mound duty for CBC. Hitters for the winners were Jim Henley and Troy Terry getting two hits apiece. Henley also hit his third home run. The best hitter for the losers was David White getting one hit.

Friday night games will be Sheriff's vs James Mtr. Co. at 6:30 p.m. and Lions vs Walkers Ref. in the second game of the night.

Coach resigns

CARLISLE, Ark. (AP) — Ervin Kulbuth, head football coach at Carlisle High School for six years, resigned Thursday.

Billie King beats Evonne at Wimbledon

WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., won her fourth women's singles titles at the Wimbledon Tennis Championships today with a 6-3, 6-3 victory over defending champion Evonne Goolagong of Australia.

With the second set tied 3-3, Mrs. King went ahead when Miss Goolagong had service problems. Then the new champion kept her service with a cross-court backhand to go ahead 5-3 and then won the set and match by breaking Miss Goolagong's service with another sizzling cross-court backhand.

Mrs. King moved ahead 5-3 in the first set by the Australian girl was guilty of some weak volleying.

Mrs. King had gained the final by defeating Rosemary Casals of San Francisco while Miss Goolagong had advanced by eliminating Chris Evert of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

It was the 28-year-old Mrs. King's sixth Wimbledon final. She won previous titles in 1966, 1967 and 1968 and also played for the championship in 1963, 1969 and 1970.

The 1971 championship was the first for the 20-year-old Miss Goolagong.

The match on the famed center court was watched by a standing-room-only crowd of 15,000. Scalpers were offering for $52 tickets that originally were priced at $4.55.

The men's title will be decided Saturday when Army Cpl. Stan Smith of Pasadena, Calif., meets Ilie Nastase of Romania. Smith, losing Wimbledon finalist last year, was the No. 1 seed this year. He also is the reigning U.S. Open champion.

James fans batters as El Paso dumpsMemphis

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Lefthander Dennis James fanned 19 batters as El Paso beat Memphis 12-5 Thursday night in the Texas League. The victory kept El Paso on top in the Western Division, two games ahead of Amarillo.

James' performance was only one strikeout short of the league record set in 1919 by Willie Mitchell of San Antonio.

Taking his first turn as a regular starter for El Paso, James also walked three and allowed five hits—including a solo homer by Roy Steiger as he posted his second victory against one loss.

El Paso jumped on two Memphis relief pitchers in the sixth inning, scoring eight runs on seven hits, including a bases-loaded double by Joe Daniels. The losing pitcher was Randy Sterling, whose record now is 7-8.

In other games, Shreveport shut out Amarillo 3-0, Arkansas clobbered Midland 12-3 and Alexandria beat San Antonio 4-2.

Allen Dopfel spaced five Amarillo hits for Shreveport as he posted his first victory after being drafted by the California Angels from MIT, where he was the nation's collegiate strikeout leader.

Arkansas' Al Hrabosky also hurled a five-hitter in Midland. The lefthander completed his job by striking out eight batters and walking three.

Arkansas collected 19 hits off four Midland pitchers. Pacing the Travelers were Bill Bright with four hits in five times at bat, including a solo homer in the third inning, Phil Trombino with three out of three and Jorge Roque with a two-run homer in the sixth.

Willie Boynton and Steve Simpson combined for a five-hitter and held back a San Antonio insurrection in the ninth inning to preserve a 4-2 victory for Alexandria. It was the sixth victory against two losses for Boynton.

The same clubs are matched again tonight with Memphis at El Paso, Arkansas at Midland, Shreveport at Amarillo and Alexandria at San Antonio.

Corn Belt buries 1st. Nat'l

In Babe Ruth League action last night at Legion Field Corn Belt won over First National by a score of 10 to 5 in the first game of the night, and Citizens was the winner over Anderson-Frazier, 10 to 0.

James Robinson was the pitcher for the winners in the first game, allowing four hits and striking out six. Ricky Fawcett, Mitch Downs, Dave Bramelett were the pitchers for the losers. The leading hitters were Lonnie Sharp, Mike McCorkle, Artis Perry, and Mike Powell had singles for Corn Belt. For the losers Mark Harris, Larry Johnson, Buddy Ford, and Dave Bramelett had singles.

The Second game Jim Rhodes was on the mound for the winners. He allowed one hit and struck-out six. Mike Butler and Bruce Huddleston were the pitchers for the losers. Doug Allen had two singles and Jim Rhodes got a single and a double. James Staggers, Larry Banks, Clay O'Steen had singles. For Anderson-Frazier Cedric Hawkins got a single.

Friday night games will be Merchants vs Blevins. All-Stars will be announced after the first game. This is the last game of the season. Everyone come out and support all your favorite players.

FAIR FIOLA WINS

DRAMMEN, Norway (AP) — Crown Prince Harald's 4-year-old favorite cow, Fiola, won first prize at the country show, scoring 129.5 points here.

The 35-year-old heir to the Norwegian throne has a 150-acre farm at his residence, "skaugum," 15 miles west of Oslo.

The crown prince was unable to attend the show because he took part in pre-Olympic yachting qualifications at Kiel, West Germany.

South finds himself in four hearts after the Poppa-Momma sequence of one heart-two hearts-three hearts-four hearts.

Not that the bidding wasn't reasonable. North's two-heart call is eminently sound and he is entitled to go on to four after his partner's rebid. There is some question about that rebid by South but the contract is a reasonable one and it looks as if South will bring it home if he plays West for the ace of trumps and East for the queen.

We will never find out if South would have made the winning play in the trump suit because he never got a chance to guess.

West started by playing ace-king and a third spade. South ruffed and led his jack of trumps and West clattered right up with the ace.

Wasn't that a give-up play? Not at all! West led a fourth spade and there was no way for South to shut out East's queen of trumps.

What about West's whole play? It was excellent. West could see that his side was not going to collect any tricks in clubs or diamonds. His only chance was to find East with the trump queen and he had taken full opportunity of that possibility.

LEADS FALCON CAGERS

Gallbladder stones cause difficulties

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—My wife spent several days in the hospital having multiple X rays. After two X rays, they said they couldn't find her gallbladder, that it was clogged up with stones. I thought that the X ray would show bones, stones or solid materials. What is your opinion of this? Please advise if there is any medicine for gallstones.

Dear Reader—It is fairly common for a "nonfunctioning gallbladder" not to show on X rays. The way a gallbladder X ray is done is to have the person take some pills which have a dye in them which will show up on the X ray. This dye material is absorbed by the bloodstream and filtered out by the liver, eventually being carried by the bile and stored in the gallbladder. Now if the gallbladder is diseased too badly, the bile will flow on out through the bile duct into the intestines and there won't be any storage of bile in the gallbladder. When this occurs since no dye reaches the gallbladder it can't be seen on the X ray.

If the reason the gallbladder is not functioning is because it has stones in it, sometimes these stones can be seen, but it depends on what kind of stones they are. If they are stones that contain minerals in them like that found in bones, then they will be seen on the X ray. Some stones, however, are made of cholesterol and contain no minerals. These do not cause any shadows by X ray. These stones look like clear spots or holes in the gallbladder filled with the dye that is opaque to X rays.

But if the gallbladder doesn't fill and it has translucent stones in it, it will not show up on the X ray.

There are really no good medicines that will dissolve stones in the gallbladder. There are some recent studies on this problem that suggest that some stones may be dissolved but this needs further study before general use. Most medicines given for gallbladder disease are for relief of symptoms. If there are a number of stones in the gallbladder, surgery is usually indicated.

* * *

You may have a dental problem after a rear-end auto collision. When the head snaps back, the mouth flies open then snaps shut abruptly. This can cause stretching or tearing of muscles and ligaments that control the lower paw. When this occurs there is pain on chewing and limitation in opening the mouth or in the movements of the jaw. The problem is treated much like any other sprained joint. The muscles must be treated with special exercises designed to regain normal range of function.

PERSONAL FINANCE

By CARLTON SMITH

If you think "doing your taxes" to meet the April 15 deadline took a lot of time, you have no idea how bad it really is. It takes the average American 117 days to get his tax payments out of the way.

That is, he has to work 117 days this year, to earn enough to pay his 1972 federal, state and local taxes, according to the Tax Foundation. So if he worked straight through — Saturdays, Sundays and holidays —he'd have his taxes off his back when he staggered home after work on April 26.

It would therefore be fitting to declare April 27 of this year Tax Freedom Day, thought the Tax Foundation, a private, nonprofit research organization. No holiday, though, because Melvin Henrod, average American, has all the rest of his time committed, to pay for the necessities of life and a few of the amenities.

Putting it on a daily basis, the Tax Foundation calculates Melvin's eight-hour working day divides up as follows to pay for the things that keep body and soul together in the Henrod family:

	Hrs.	Min.
Taxes	2	34
Food & beverages	1	2
Housing	1	3
Transportation		40
Clothing		26
Medical		23
Recreation		19
All other	1	33

You will notice that this adds up to eight hours of solid working time, with no allowance for coffee breaks, lunch or going down the hall to comb his hair. This may explain why Melvin, the all-American taxpayer, generally looks tired, undernourished and somewhat pained.

As the foundation points out, more of Melvin's working day goes to paying off the tax collectors than for buying the family's food, clothing and shelter. This could explain why Melvin's collars are frayed, and why the roof leaks.

Notice, also, that the tax collectors get eight times as much of Melvin's pay as the family spends on recreation. This is probably why Melvin's morale and muscle tone are low, and why his doctor keeps telling him he should get more exercise. That bulge around his middle is known as "tax flab."

Arithmetic tells us that two hours and 34 minutes, as a portion of an eight-hour day, comes to 32 per cent. The fact that he spends roughly one-third of each working day earning enough money to pay his taxes may explain why Melvin gets red in the face and starts waving his arms around when you mention the word "taxes."

It is a condition aggravated by the recent disclosures that 112 citizens enjoying annual incomes of more than $200,000 paid no federal income tax in 1970—the latest tally of "zero taxpayers."

Religion forces set up operations in Miami

By GEORGE CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

Religion forces of the country, worried about the turbulence that has marked recent national political conventions, have set up an unprecedented operation in Miami, Fla., to help keep the peace and forestall trouble at this summer's gatherings of Democrats and Republicans.

"Nothing comparable to this has been undertaken by religious leadership anytime before," says the Rev. Jack Cassidy, head of the staff of the specially formed agency, Religious and Community Leaders Concerned—RCLC.

It has headquarters on the third floor of a bank building at the corner of Washington Avenue and Lincoln Road, a block from Convention Hall. An interdenominational crew of 350 volunteers are taking part in the operation.

"Our objective is to help maintain peace and stability, to provide a community atmosphere that will facilitate the democratic process and support all participants, delegates as well as dissenting groups, in the exercise of their first-amendment rights," the Rev. Mr. Cassidy said in a telephone interview.

During the conventions, he said observer teams of clergy and laymen, identifiable by RCLC insignia, will be stationed throughout the city, at campsites and in the convention hall, to keep tab on the situations, help prevent confrontations, scotch rumors and encourage maintenance of law and deceny in demonstrations.

"Observers will not intervene in crisies, but hopefully help prevent them," he said. "We want to remain a neutral thirty-party force. Our executive staff also will be available to serve as liaison between groups and possibly for mediation at critical points."

Set up on a national basis, with the backing of the National Council of Churches, the U.S. Catholic Conference and the Synagogue Council of America, the operation was sparked by concern over the violence surrounding the 1968 Democratic Convention in Chicago.

RCLC has established communications with convention officials and city agencies as well as with leaders of the myriad groups outside the convention that will be on hand to push their causes, including women's coalitions, "gay" activists, Vietnam veterans, welfare groups, counter-culture youth, peace coalitions Yippies and Zippies.

BE PARTNERS WITH GOD

a warning

Foolish the moth which seeks in the candle, not life but death! Beneath the light there is the burning flame... sudden death for the moth.

A light is a warning to a sailor, a guide to the airman, a beacon to the lost.

It can either save or destroy. Do we seek light or just the flame? Beneficient goods may be turned into destroying weapons.

Food was meant to give health and strength. It is an instrument of good, but given to the glutton, it brings him ruin. Grapes grow for man's sustenance. But when the wine is loved for itself it degrades the body, befuddles the mind and sickens the spirit. God gave us His church, His word to light our way. If we use them for good, no harm will come to us. We won't get hurt as did the moths.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Pour Your Contributions Of Wealth and Service Into The Program Of Your Church. Here They Will Help Create Lasting Benefits For All Mankind.

HONG KONG (AP) — American author Barbara W. Tuchman, whose historical books have won two Pulitzer prizes, crossed the Hong Kong border today en route to Peking and a six-week tour of China.

Mrs. Tuchman won her first Pulitzer in 1963 for "The Guns of August," a book chronicling the start of World War I in Europe. She won the award again this year for the book "Stilwell and the American Experience in China."

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Gov. Reubin Askew will deliver speeches at both the Democratic and Republican national conventions in Miami Beach.

Deputy press secretary Maurice Harling said Thursday that Askew, a Democrat, plans to accept an invitation to deliver the welcoming address at the GOP parley Aug. 21.

Askew is scheduled to deliver the keynote address Tuesday at the Democratic conclave.

Harling said the Republicans invited Askew to speak because he is the chief executive of the host state.

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP) — Author Pearl S. Buck, who is recuperating at a hospital here from an attack of pleurisy, has received a telegram from President Nixon.

"As a long-time admirer of your indomitable spirit and unfailing courage, I am confident that you will soon be fully recovered and able to continue your work," Nixon said in his telegram to the 80-year-old writer.

Hospital spokesmen said Thursday that the President also extended his "prayers and best wishes."

Miss Buck, winner of the Nobel and Pulitzer prizes, was reported in very satisfactory condition. Admitted to the hospital last Saturday, she had been working on four novels at her summer home in Danby when stricken with the pleurisy attack.

PARIS (AP) — Jane Fonda, the American film star and antiwar activist, says she is carrying to Hanoi several hundred letters from families of prisoners of war held in North Vietnam.

Miss Fonda left for Moscow Thursday en route to a 10-day visit to the North Vietnamese capital.

She said that on her return she intends to report on the effects of U.S. bombing in Vietnam.

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Adm. Elmo R. Zumwalt Jr., responding to a Soviet-Cuban demand that the United States withdraw from its naval base at Guantanamo Bay in Cuba, says, "My reaction would be: 'Nuts.'"

Zumwalt made the comment while here Thursday for the first East Coast Flag Officers Symposium.

The demand came Thursday in a 4,000-word joint comminique as Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro concluded an 11-day visit to the Soviet Union.

Man threatens daughter, then killed by police

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Paul Escalente, 26, stood in the middle of a street holding a foot-long butcher knife to the throat of his 7-month-old daughter Paula.

"We tried everything we knew to talk him out of the knife or at least stall him," Patrolman T. O. Bresenhan said Thursday. "We told him it was senseless to hurt his daughter if he was mad at his wife."

A sister, Gina Vasquez, 24, told police Escalente came home drunk and mad at his wife.

"He grabbed the baby and a knife and yelled for us to get out," she said. "He said he wanted Esther (his wife) to come and get Paula," Mrs. Vasquez said. "He told us he'd kill her when she came, and if she didn't come — he'd kill the baby and himself."

"When he advanced on me, the baby fell," said Patrolman L. W. Hoffmaster. "I had a clear shot and fired."

The two officers fired about five times, killing Escalente, a Vietnam veteran discharged from the army seven months ago.

While police tried to talk with Escalente, he dashed after an unidentified man walking down the street and barely missed slashing the man's throat.

Paula was listed in good condition at a hospital with facial lacerations. She is the youngest of four Escalente children.

HUD director is sworn in LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Thomas E. Barber was to be sworn in today as director of the federal Housing and Urban Development area office here.

He succeeds Dr. Wayne H. Babbit of North Little Rock who resigned last March to become a Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Barber joined HUD in 1970 and has held two positions in the Southwest Regional Office at Fort Worth.

POSTER CHILD—Miss Sharon Hibbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hibbard of Searcy, Arkansas, shown in the photo with the State Poster Child, Jimmy Lick, is serving as State Teen-age Chairman of Arkansas and is also Arkansas Junior Miss for 1972.

McGehee boy is poster child

Jimmy Lick of McGehee was visited recently by State Teen-age Chairman, Sharon Hibbard, who is also Arkansas Junior Miss from Searcy.

Jimmy's face will likely become very familiar to residents of Arkansas in the coming months. The 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hueston Lick has been chosen to represent all the lung-damaged children served by the Arkansas Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Jimmy, who has cystic fibrosis, will act as spokesman for the Arkansas children suffering from cystic fibrosis, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, severe asthma and other lung-damaging diseases whose symptoms resemble the genetically caused cystic fibrosis. There are five million children suffering from these diseases in the U.S. today.

Jimmy sleeps nightly in a mist tent that provides moisture to loosen the thick mucus that collects in his lungs amd endangers breathing. He requires at least 2 mask treatments during the day and bronchial drainage, done by his mother or some other member of the family, three times a day.

Jimmy takes from 10 to 15 pills a day (some children as many as 44 per day). He will take about 3 times the normal amount of vitamins and eats about 3 times as much as other children. He has been under treatment since infancy.

Mrs. Lick siad, "The Arkansas Chapter has been a blessing to us during the years that we have faced our problem of having a child with cystic fibrosis. They have helped us by counseling and supplying us with information on research progress. By helping fund a clinic where C-F children and other lung-damaged children get expert medical care and treatment, and maintaining a loan colset of equipment. Just knowing, she said, about the research that the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation is conducting generates hope for our family. We know that research is the answer to our problem. Jimmy is alive today because of research and the care he receives through the Cystic Fibrosis clinic at the University of Arkansas Medical Center."

Actor Brandon DeWilde dies

LAKEWOOD, Colo. (AP) — As the stranger who helped his father rides off into the bleak frontier plain, the tousle-haired boy shouts after him, "Shane? Shane, come back!"

That scene at the end of the 1953 film classic "Shane" remains for many one of the most moving in Westerns, and it secured a lasting fame for its child star, Brandon de Wilde.

De Wilde, 30, died Thursday evening of injuries suffered several hours earlier in a traffic accident in this Denver suburb. He had recently completed an appearance here in a stage production of "Butterflies Are Free."

The Brooklyn-born actor who lived in Century City, Calif., was alone in a van truck when it glanced off a guard rail during a heavy rainstorm and slammed into a parked construction trailer.

De Wilde was pinned in the wreckage. He suffered a broken neck, back and leg. He died four hours later in a Denver hospital.

De Wilde's career had waned somewhat in recent years. He started out as a 7-year-old in 1950 with a Broadway debut in Carson McCuller's "Member of the Wedding" that won critical raves.

That performance led to the role in "Shane," in which he played an impressionable youngster learning the meaning of violence on the plains of Wyoming during the American frontier.

Because he continued to look younger than his age, he often played a similar role in later motion pictures, notably "Hud" in 1963, in which he portrayed a teen-ager growing up in the shadow of a strong-willed uncle.

Other film credits included roles in "Blue Denim," "All Fall Down," "The Deserter," "In Harm's Way," and "Those Calloways." He starred in his own television series, "Jamie," in 1953 and 1954.

Although he was born into a show business family, De Wilde got his own start quite by accident. A friend of his parents, actor Frederic de Wilde and actress Eugenia Wilson, was looking for a young boy to play in "Member of the Wedding."

Brandon, then a student at Baldwin Public School in Baldwin, N.Y., auditioned. Despite a shaky tryout, he won the part and then almost stole the show from Julie Harris and Ethel Waters.

Former aide sues Hughes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Billionaire industrialist Howard Hughes is accused in a $51 million damage suit of slandering Noah Dietrich, his 83-year-old biographer and former aide.

It was the second slander suit filed as the result of a televised news conference last January in which a voice identified as Hughes said of an associate: "He's a no-good, dishonest son-of-a-bitch and he stole me blind."

Dietrich's suit, filed Thursday in Superior Court, alleged that Hughes made the statement about another associate and likened Dietrich to that individual.

In February, Robert A. Maheu, who was fired by Hughes as the $500,000-a-year head of Hughes' Nevada gambling and hotel empire, filed a $17.5 million libel and slander suit claiming the statement referred to him.

Also named as defendants were Hughes Tool Co., parent organization of the Hughes empire; the public relations firm of Carl Byoir & Associates; and Richard Hannah, a Byoir account executive.

Hannah said there would be no comment because he had not seen the suit.

The public relations firm arranged the February conference with seven newsmen in Los Angeles while Hughes was in the Bahamas.

Dietrich asked that the defendants pay $1 million in general damages and $50 million in punitive damages "or a greater amount according to the proof of his wealth."

Dietrich's suit said Hughes is a resident of Los Angeles County and "has been living in various parts of the Western Hemisphere for the past 15 years for the purpose of avoiding service of court process." Hughes Tool Co. officials say the billionaire is now living in a hotel suite in Vancouver, B.C.

Bumpers is criticized

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Roosevelt Smith of North Little Rock, a spokesman for the Vietnam Veterans Organizing Committee (VVOC), criticized Gov. Dale Bumpers Thursday for refusing to implement a temporary veteran jobs agency.

Smith said the refusal was a "crushing blow" to his organization.

Smith said aides to the governor had told the organization Wednesday that Bumpers would not implement the proposal for a temporary job agency for veterans.

"Now, after receiving such a crushing blow, it will be necessary to contact other local, state and national leaders and also other organizations to try to get assistance in this crisis," Smith said.

Smith said Archie Schaffer III, an aide to Bumpers, told VVOC members that "job finding activities are the responsibility of the Employment Security Division."

Smith said the organization agreed that job finding should be the responsibility of ESD. He said, however, that many hundreds of Arkansas veterans had sought the aid of ESD, but that, "unfortunately, in most cases, the results were unproductive."

Black is assigned to Africa

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has made good on a promise and assigned James E. Baker to South Africa-the first black American diplomat assigned to the nation.

A State Department spokesman announced Thursday that Baker, a 37-year-old career foreign service officer, has been assigned to the U.S. Embassy in Pretoria, where he will be economic and commercial officer.

Other black American diplomats and diplomatic couriers have served on a temporary basis in South Africa, but spokesman Charles W. Bray said Baker will be the first one on a permanent basis, probably spending two to three years in the country.

Top State Department officials have repeatedly told congressional committees the administration intended to appoint a black diplomat to the embassy in South Africa at an appropriate time.

Bray told the news conference Thursday that the department does not expect Baker to be subject to any restrictions in South Africa, where the government's official policy is separation of blacks and whites.
